EUROPEAN FRESH PRODUCE ASSOCIATION

Membership Information 2021

About Freshfel Europe

Freshfel Europe is the umbrella organisation for the fresh fruit & vegetable supply chain in Europe & beyond.

Founded in 2001, Freshfel Europe represents the whole fresh fruit & vegetable supply chain, including producers, traders, wholesalers, importers & exporters, logistics, service providers & retailers.

Freshfel Europe is the main sector representative body in EU decision-making. Freshfel Europe represents the common interests of the supply chain for the benefit of the fresh produce sector & consumers.

Freshfel Europe works closely with the European institutions in EU-level policy-making as well as with global organisations including FAO, WTO & UNECE on international issues.

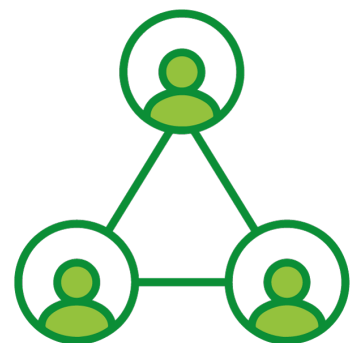

Freshfel Europe is governed by a Board consisting of 25 full members. The Freshfel Europe Secretariat is based in Brussels, Belgium and is a non-profit association under Belgian Law registered in the EU Transparency Register.

Freshfel Europe's members

Freshfel Europe has 113 members based across Europe & globally. This excludes Freshfel Europe's members' branches, satellite and subsidiary companies.

Freshfel Europe members are leading EU & global fresh produce stakeholders with a drive to be at the forefront of the sector, including companies, interbranch organisations, national associations, sectorial & product organisations & service providers.

Freshfel Europe membership is divided into full members, including those stakeholders with direct activities with fresh produce, and associated members, including those stakeholders with indirect activities with fresh produce.

All Freshfel Europe members benefit from the same advantages regardless of membership type. Freshfel Europe's membership is available at www.freshfel.org.
